

HAMMOND THEATRE PRESENTS

March 5-7
2026

Music by TOM SNOW FOOTLOOSE Stage Adaptation by DEAN PITCHFORD and WALTER BOBBIE Lyrics by DEAN PITCHFORD

Presented through a special arrangement with Concord Theatricals

Director's Notes

Do you remember the iconic 80's movie with a stellar cast, catchy tunes and a dramatic tractor battle? I'm happy to report that this production definitely has the first two (the stage adaptation did away with the tractors!) along with plenty of fancy footwork. When most of us think about Footloose, we recall a story that revolves around dance and a town divided over its decency. While Bomont isn't a real town, it is meant to represent a place we all know, where new people and their ideas are often seen as a threat. I'd like to offer that the core of this story isn't about dance. The characters in this tight-knit community learn about forgiveness and how it leads to freedom and that's the real foundation of Footloose.

As we build a show, we build a community; I'm so very grateful for the dedicated, inspiring, and collaborative community that is Hammond High Theatre. We are also lucky to be a part of Hammond High School (the place where people truly are important) and HCPSS Fine and Performing Arts, which has continued to uplift our work and encourage student expression. When the gals in the diner sing about needing a hero, I'm constantly reminded that I get to work with heroes daily--students and adults, onstage and off, who fight for what is right, figure out a way when it's nowhere near easy, and pour their hearts into people and the production. We invite you to sit back, hum along, and celebrate the power of real community with this awesome production of Footloose!
